

The Adventures of: Chairlene

TODAY: Chairlene visits It's 5 O'Clock Somewhere in Stamford

Howdy y'all .... It's me again, Miss Chairlene here outside It's Five O'Clock Somewhere on Main Street in one of my favorite Villages ... Stamford!

I do declare Skip', darlin' ...

You have such a nice place here.

...And you, sir are such a dear, sweet boy indeed for lettin' little 'ol me visit on such short notice!

My stars, Skip, this wine you recommended is about the best I've had in ages! And such a reasonable price too! (sip)

Now Skip, I understand that you'll be the Auctioneer at our fun raiser I mean FUNDRAISER! (sip)

And this bourbon is just a smidge as good as Granddady's moonshine. (sip)

My Stars! So many sizes to choose from! (sip) (sip)

Say darlin' ...Have you been workin' out? (sip, sip)

You sure have dreamy eyezzz! (sip)

I know (hic) you're a happily married man, sugar. (sip) But (hic) would you ever conzzzider...

What'z zzzhat?! Are you sure it'z timz to go? Okaay. Thankzz for callin' me that car zzzervice. My, you're zzzuch a goody goody!

PLEASE DON'T DRINK & DRIVE

Follow the Adventures of Chairlene all summer as she turns up in the darndest of places telling folks about the importance of keeping the Stamford Railroad Station operative for all the community organizations that directly assist the greater Stamford area which consists of: Gilboa, Grand Gorge, Harpersfield, Hobart, Jefferson, Kortright and Stamford. She'll be at each and every one of these locations with news of a Chair Art project for all creative people of all ages to join in the fun by painting and decorating their chairs and entering them in the Big Fall Fundraising Auction at the station in September.
